

When voters enacted contribution limits and other campaign reforms by approving Initiative 134 in 1992, they gave the Public Disclosure Commission the responsibility of making inflationary adjustments in even-numbered years. The 2016 adjustments to contribution limits and other dollar thresholds listed below take effect Monday, February 29.

THRESHOLD BEING ADJUSTED	NEW AMOUNT
Candidate loan repayment limit	$6,000
Maximum amount allowed for cash (actual currency) contributions	$100
Independent expenditure threshold amount that triggers No Candidate Authorized ... disclaimer in ad	$1,000
Special reporting by persons other than PACs, lobbyists, or lobbyist employers who make large contributions to state campaigns (PDC C-7 report)	$20,000
Out-of-state committee large contribution disclosure threshold (PDC C-5 report)	$2,680
